International Workshop

June 15th – June 17th
University of Konstanz

Traditional Governance and Modern Statehood

The International Workshop on Traditional Governance and Indigenous Peoples is part of the DFG Reinhart Koselleck-Project “Traditional Governance and Modern Statehood” led by Prof. Dr. Katharina Holzinger at the University of Konstanz.

In the workshop, we will explore ongoing empirical research on contemporary traditional governance, indigenous institutions, and related political and socio-economic consequences. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss their work extensively in a small group. We structured the workshop according to four themes: Public Goods and Development, Democracy, Legal status, and Peace, Security and Dispute Resolution.
