Study Abroad

If there is no exchange agreement between Leiden University and your home institution, you have the option to apply for a Study Abroad programme for one or two semesters instead. This programme allows you to create your own study programme by choosing a selection of courses that match your background and interests. Alternatively, you can participate in programmes that are especially tailored for students with a particular interest in fields such as language and culture, international relations, or business studies. Leiden University does charge tuition fees for Study Abroad programmes.
