Brown Bag Seminar, Winter Term 2019/2020
Fridays 12:00–13:15 h, Room D 351

25.10. Brazil’s Policies Towards Refugees: An Example of Humanitarianism? · Patricia Nabuco Martuscelli

15.11. Perceptions on Biased News Consumption
Philipp Kling

22.11. Gender Quotas and the Evolution of Co-sponsorship networks in Portugal
Sebastian Köhler & Patrícia Calca

29.11. Ethnic Diversity and Media Freedom in Non-democratic States · Janina Beiser-McGrath

06.12. Women’s Empowerment & Gendered Preferences: A Field Experiment · Alina Greiner

Sandra Morgenstern

20.12. Overshadowed Liberalism: Protectionism during Interstate Disputes · Konstantin Bätz

10.01. Censor & Contend: The Use of Denial-of-Service Attacks in Autocracies · Philipp Lutscher

17.01. One Speech, Many Emotions? Using Facial Cues to Measure Emotional Reactions
Theresa Küntzler

24.01. Elite Management in Autocracies
Felix Dwinger

31.01. The Political Space of Internet Policy: Evidence from the European Parliament
Max Heermann

07.02. Indigenous Land Rights in Latin America
Sven Schmid

The Brown Bag Seminar is a platform where doctoral students, postdocs and junior professors present their early-stage research. If you are interested in presenting in the coming semester contact the organizers:
max.heermann@uni.kn
philipp.lutscher@uni.kn